MONSTER TRUCKS TO JOIN LINE UP AT QATAR AIRWAYS AUSTRALIAN MOTORCYCLE GRAND PRIX

With just one month to go until the Qatar Airways Australian Motorcycle Grand Prix 2024, excitement for the on-track action in the midst of a thrilling MotoGP™ season is high. And in addition to the huge line-up of international and local categories set to race at the Phillip Island Grand Prix Circuit, the off-track offering will keep fans of all ages entertained.

Lukey's Lawn, located by Turn 9, will be home to Monster Trucks, which thrill-seeking fans can ride along in for a gravity-defying experience.

An all-new Games Zone, located near Turn 1, will be a haven for the competitive spirit, with axe throwing, reaction testers, motorbike arcade games, and classic carnival games like King of the Hammer.

Alongside the Gardner Straight, outside the Expo, fans can test their skills on the Moto Trainer Official MotoGP Licenced Simulators.

From 18-20 October, MotoGP™, Moto2™ and Moto3™ along with OJC will return to Phillip Island, including Australian riders Jack Miller, Pedro Acosta, Jacob Roulstone and Joel Kelso, for three days of thrilling motorsport.
